Happy New Year. Please remember to be running your Cumulative Report weekly and looking at your last session report daily. If you need any assistance with Custom Courses or have any other questions or concerns please contact me I am always available to meet with you at your school when it's convenient for your schedule.

Edmentum Sensei for Study Island is an interactive data dashboard designed to help you identify patterns, measure progress, and gain insight into your students' individual needs. Easily connect with students to ask questions, give praise, offer encouragement, or just dig a little deeper into their achievement. Examine each student's progress towards meeting your state standards, and provide students with remediation or acceleration assignments directly from your dashboard.

Title I News

Parent and Family Engagement (PFE) in Title I, Part A Programs – Title I, Part A has one of the strongest PFE component of all Title federal programs. Parent and Family Engagement (PFE) in a child's education is a greater predictor of academic success than whether or not that family is affluent or poor. That's why Title I, Part A program insist on robust parent and family engagement activities at every school where federal funds support effective teaching and engaged learning.

Schools have a responsibility to promote and strengthen parent and family engagement within their Title I, Part A programs. There are clear

Parent Information for newsletters:

Why Parent and Family Engagement?

Research tells us that students with engaged parents and families, are more likely to:

- Learn to read faster (Exhibit faster rates of literacy acquisition.)
- Have higher grades and test scores.
- Are promoted and take more challenging classes.
- Adapt better to school and have better attendance.
- Have better social skills and behavior.
- Graduate.
